

Speaker's Profile

Anthony John Ward

United Kingdom

Current:

- Chief Executive of Home Funding Limited (HFL), which provides strategic, product and funding solutions to the banking, insurance, mortgage lending and structured finance industry and specialises in Securitisation and structured finance
- Adviser to HM Revenue and Customs on tax matters relating to banking and treasury instruments and to the FCA on certain prudential matters

Past:

- Strong background in banking and finance spanning over 35 years. Before joining Home Funding, Tony held various senior positions in retail and international banking.
- Chief Executive of First Active Financial plc, a UK retail banking business, Mortgage Trust and Britannic Money plc
- Group Treasurer of one of the UK's first mortgage securitisation companies established by Kleinwort Benson called Mortgage Funding Corporation plc
- Head of Treasury Kleinwort Benson Investment Management Bank
- Past Deputy Chairman of the Council of Mortgage Lenders and Chairman of the Intermediary Mortgage Lenders Association (IMLA)
- Elected Chairman of cross-industry Mortgage Funding Group in 2010

Education:

- Member Association of Corporate Treasurers
- Member Institute of Credit Managers
- Fellow Royal Society of Arts
- Oxford University Business Economics Programme