

Thursday, 11 September 2014

- 14:00 Meeting of the IUHF Executive Committee, Sofitel Bayerpost, Boardroom B
- 15:30 Welcome coffee in the conference foyer
- 16:00 – 17:30 Official opening and first session:
Housing finance institutions and financial instruments
- Welcome extended by Andreas J. Zehnder, President of the IUHF
 - Walter Buser, City Council of Munich, Germany:
Challenges of housing and urban development policy faced by the city of Munich
 - Alex J. Pollock, American Enterprise Institute, USA:
Perspectives and lessons from 100 years of housing finance
 - Anthony J. Ward, Home Funding Limited, UK:
The re-emergence of the RMBS as a funding mechanism – will it be different this time post crisis?
- 18:30 Welcome reception for delegates and accompanying persons at the Sofitel Bayerpost
- 19:00 Dinner for delegates and accompanying persons at the Sofitel Bayerpost. Dress code: business

Friday, 12 September 2014

- 09:00 – 10:30 Second session: Housing finance institutions and financial instruments (continued)
- Herbert G. Pfeiffer, European Federation of Building Societies, Slovakia: Savings as part of sound housing finance
 - András G. Botos, Association of Hungarian Mortgage Banks, Hungary: Frequently asked questions about Covered Bonds
 - Kapil Wadhawan, Dewan Housing Finance Corporation Limited, India: The great Indian opportunity

Coffee and tea break

11:00 – 12:30

Third session: Regulatory developments in the field of housing finance

- Stephen A. O'Connor, Mortgage Bankers Association, USA: Post-crisis mortgage regulation in the US – an evolving process
- Adrian Steiner, European Commission, Belgium: The Mortgage Credit Directive: An EU framework for mortgage credits
- Ulrich von Zanthier, KPMG, Germany: Impact of regulatory requirements on banks
- Cas Coovadia, The Banking Association South Africa: Housing finance regulation – where the developed and developing environments meet

Buffet lunch

13:30 – 15:00

Fourth session: Real estate economics

- Masato Koumura, Japan Housing Finance Agency, Japan: Challenges in the changing social environments for the next century – harmonization of tradition and innovation
- Thorsten Beck, Cass Business School, UK: Housing finance across the globe – challenges and risks
- Eduardo Rottmann, Brazilian Appraisal Institute, Brazil: The effects of financial expansion on housing prices in Brazil: is there a new bubble in sight?
- Zaigham Mahmood Rizvi, Asia-Pacific Union for Housing Finance, USA: Housing and housing finance challenges and initiatives in OIC member countries
- Åsa Johansson, OECD, Sweden: Housing policies for renovation

Coffee and tea break

15:30 – 17:00

Fifth session: Real estate economics (continued) and official conclusion

- Datuk Seri Michael K C Yam, Real Estate and Housing Developers' Association, Malaysia: The success of the housing delivery system in Malaysia

- José Luis Romero Hicks, Grupo de Apoyo a la Vivienda, Mexico:
An economic approach to Mexico's housing market
- Christian Felber, author, lecturer at the Vienna University of Economics and Business, coined the term „Economy for the Common Good“ and co-initiated the „Bank for the Common Good“ project, Austria: The future of money, banks and credit – reconciling democratic values and the financial world

18:30 Buses for delegates and accompanying persons depart from the front entrance of the Sofitel Bayerpost

19:00 Gala dinner at the Max Joseph Hall of the Munich Residenz on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the IUHF
Dress code: elegant

About 23:00 Buses return to the Sofitel Bayerpost

End of the official part of the event

Saturday, 13 September 2014

Optional programme for delegates and accompanying persons:
A trip to Augsburg.

For detailed information see following page.

PROGRAMME FOR ACCOMPANYING PERSONS

While the delegates attend the business programme, accompanying persons are invited to explore the sights of Munich on 12 September 2014. Two options are available and should be booked in advance:

A walk through Munich's historical city | approx. 2 hours

The tour starts at 10:00 from the lobby of the conference hotel.

If you are visiting Munich for the first time, this tour offers an ideal overview. It takes you to the most interesting places of Munich's historical city. You will be informed about the past and the present of Bavaria's beautiful capital. After the 2-hour city walk, the participants of this tour are invited for a light lunch at a delicatessen shop.

Visit to Nymphenburg Palace | approx. 3 hours

The tour starts at 10:00 from the lobby of the conference hotel.

It takes you to Nymphenburg Palace and its magnificent park. You will visit the interior of the castle and - during a walk in the park - the lovely summer residence of Amalienburg. After the visits the participants of the tour are invited to a light lunch.

Optional programme for delegates and accompanying persons on 13 September 2014: A trip to Augsburg.

We will begin our tour at the "Fuggerei". Founded in 1516 by Jakob Fugger the Younger, known as Jakob Fugger the Rich, it is still inhabited today, affording it the status of being the oldest social housing project in the world. After the "Fuggerei" we will visit of the Golden Hall of the Augsburg Town Hall where we will be met by the lord mayor of the city. Lunch will be served at the prizewinning restaurant Kahn. You will be back in Munich by about 4 p.m. In case someone needs to be back earlier we can make individual arrangements.